

Linnæan Society,
Burlington House, London, W.
May 1st. 1890

Dr. Lorenzo Watson,
Cambridge, Mass. U.S.A.

Dear Dr. Watson,

I have the heartiest pleasure in announcing that this evening you have been elected a Foreign member of this Society.
In due course you will receive a diploma under the Common seal of the Society, but I could not deny myself the pleasure of an early intimation.

Yours faithfully
Wm. G. Smith
Secy

P.S. Enclosed please find receipt for your Postal Order - You forwarded too much, the sum due being only £2.0.6. The difference therefore is now returned in a Postal Order for 13/6 payable to you from Frank Crisp, Linnæan Society London. The Order to which you refer was not charged for, being presented to you.
